LEGAL ADVICE AT THE LOWEST

BUSINESSES ARE LOOKING TO CUT COSTS

Anyone doing business today knows how expensive legal costs can get. Business lawyers regularly charge hourly fees of $400 or more for general consultations. Hourly fees of $600 or more are now standard practice for law firms offering specialized legal services. At a time when companies are struggling to survive having an opportunity to trim legal costs can mean the difference between a successful business and going out of business.

THE LANGON SOLUTION

That's where we come in. Langon is unique because it offers you the very best legal representation at the lowest possible price. Our business structure means that we can charge our clients LESS than comparable law firms offering similar legal services. Often A LOT LESS.

In fact, hiring Langon can mean savings of between 30% to 60% in legal fees. That means less money for your lawyer and greater savings for your company.

NO Rounding Up

We don't believe in rounding up our hourly fees. Why should you pay your lawyer for 40 minutes of work when they only worked 35? Langon attorneys bill to the nearest second.

NO Extra Charges

Unlike other law firms, we don't charge our clients for phone calls, faxes, or photocopying.
